Albemarle Genealogical Society

The Albemarle Genealogical Society was founded in January 1982 to aid individuals in their genealogical research and in the compilation of their family histories. The society, serving primarily Currituck and Dare counties, attempts to create an interest in genealogy, to gather and preserve genealogical and historical data, and to provide genealogical resource information to any interested individuals.

Membership

Membership in the Albemarle Genealogical Society is open to all who are interested in genealogical, biographical, and historical research. The membership year is from January through December. Dues are $20.00 per year. Dues are not pro-rated, however, new members admitted after October 1 shall be credited with dues paid for the following calendar year.

Meetings

Meetings are held at 10:00 a.m. on the second Saturday of January, April and October and at 7:00 p.m. on the second Wednesday of July at the Currituck County Public Library in Barco, North Carolina. Meetings are open to anyone interested in the topic presented or in genealogy in general. Visitors are welcome.
